HAZEL GREEN, KY.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4, 1885

NOTICE.
THE HERALD is published this week to a large number of persons in a number of places in the counties of Boone, Logan, Boone, Elliott, Estill, Perry and Floyd. In fact at every point in the mountains. Write for terms to agents, &c.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rem—To the wife of W. C. Coldiron, on the 8th, a daughter.

We'll be a ginger cake. Sentimental copies are sure to be more.

Died—On Saturday, the 7th inst. of senility, Mrs. Margaret Campbell, aged 20 years.

Died—On Sunday, of fever, Wm. Prater, of Grassy, Morgan county, aged about 37 years.

The cattle trade is a little better in this neighborhood than it has been for some time.

Floyd Day purchased a handsome big brown horse last week on Saturday, of Breathitt, at $135.

John Day, of Fenton, spent Monday night in Hazel Green. He was enroute home from Louisville.

Harmon of our section should stop with John Keefe when they go to Mt. Sterling, Ky. Monday.

See the advertisement, "Horse Wanted." Here's a chance for our farmers to sell some of their stock.

J. T. Day sold to D. S. Godsey a big horse for $110, and a bay pony to Mr. Jones, of Knott county, for $85.

Mrs. S. S. Combs, of Campton, was in town several days last week, visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Kash, who has been quite sick.

J. T. & F. Day, and Swango & Bro., are buying cattle for the Mt. Sterling market, and will have them on the market on court day.

J. T. Thomas and wife, who are teaching school at Frenchburg, were visiting Mrs. Thomas's father, Rev. J. T. Pieratt, on Sunday last.

Read THE HERALD carefully before you go to Mt. Sterling, and see that you do not patronize some house not advertised in your home paper.

We can truthfully boast of two of the best hotels and three of the best mountain churches in the mountains of Kentucky. In Hazel Green, therefore, there is no lack of spiritual or bodily comfort.

Born—To the wife of Dr. F. M. Thomas of this place, a daughter—Beulah Lock. It is unnecessary to add that Dr. Thomas is the happiest man in town; and they say that his mill customers get off with half toll now.

Prof. N. B. Hays has quite a flourishing school, and among his scholars many young ladies and gentlemen from a distance are enrolled, representing the counties of Lee, Breathitt, Morgan, Wolfe and Fayette. His open entertainments invariably draw crowded houses.

Hon. W. O. Mine makes a proposition in this paper to all who owe him, which strikes us as a very liberal one. The way he proposes to give away is the celebrated "Waterbury," than which there is not a better time-piece known. We wear one, and know they are good ones.

Mrs. Alice Frazier, of Coles county, Ill., and a sister of Judge G. B. Swango, of our town, who has been suffering with severe attack of rheumatism, have been glad to announce to her many friends and relatives in this community was recovering when heard from a few days since.

Our town, as an exception to the general rule, has been visited by such sickness for the past week. There are several ladies now prostrated, among them Mrs. E. P. Mickel, Mrs. F. M. McKinnis, Dr. Taulbee, Mrs. W. O. Mine, Mrs. H. Kash and Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson.

Austin Ritchie and Evans Peterson, two citizens of Knott county, passed through town on Friday last, when they were home from Corvinton. Unfortunately they had been mounting horses, and in consequence have been boarding at the expense of the government some thirty days. Boys, go thy way and sin no more.

Mr. J. S. Clarke, the boss carpenter and contractor of West Liberty, who is now in charge of the improvements on the new house at Campton, has determined to locate in our metropolis, and he secured the dwelling recently occupied by Oscar Hall, by the way, as we hold open doors for him and good citizens.

The Champion mill company, under new management, is having a boom in order of general satisfaction. We are sure for it succeeded in getting a new mill, and a price of millers, Dr. F. M. Thomas, general manager, and big business to handle grain. We are sure that the company expect to be able to improve on their mill in a very early date. Lookout for advertisement next week.

A very sad accident occurred on Gilmore creek, in this county, last Saturday, resulting in the death of William B. Day, of that neighborhood. It appeared that Andy J. Lindon was clearing a piece of ground, and had invited several "no working" as is the custom in this section. Ely and Lindon were chopping one tree and Oscar Faller and a son of Lindon's were chopping on another just above them on the hill. Both parties were ready to fall at about the same time, and those chopping on the upper tree fell on the lower. Both fell back when, it is supposed, Ely mistook the warning and thought it was the tree upon which he was chopping which they intended. Any way, he just stepped back three feet, when the tree from above fell, striking him on the back of the neck and killing him instantly. He was a man about thirty-five years of age. He leaves a wife and one child. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

On Saturday last, on Lacy creek, in this county, a child, but three years of age, was so badly burned that it cannot live. Its mother, Susanna Fletcher, had left it in the house while she went to assist in preparing the corpse of Mrs. Margaret Campbell, who had died that morning. The child, who was a small child, was playing in the fire when his clothing ignited, and there being no person present to try to extinguish it, the child was badly burned. John D. Rose, who was at the house of a neighbor about three hundred yards distant, heard the screams of the children, and ran to their assistance, but when he arrived the child was turning around in the fire with wild the pain it was suffering from the clothing and part of its flesh having burned off. Mr. Rose did what he could to relieve its suffering, but it is thought the child cannot survive.

If you are thinking of buying a fine suit of clothes now, you should by all means read the advertisement of Tom P. Rogers, which appears in our paper today. If you are thinking of shaking off the yoke of single blessedness for the time being, you should by all means read the advertisement of Tom P. Rogers, which appears in our paper today. If you are thinking of shaking off the yoke of single blessedness for the time being, you should by all means read the advertisement of Tom P. Rogers, which appears in our paper today.

Several young men from Texas, who moved from Knott county, Ky., some time ago, passed through town on Friday last returning to their native haunts. There is no place like home, especially when the home happens to be in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky. This thing of "no good young man," is a thing (on reflection) but it won't do, boys, when it is Kentucky is the best state in this foot-hill and the eastern part of it is the bonanza of Kentucky. Mark this, stay at home, and invite immigration, capital and labor.

Some real live men can secure a good thing by corresponding with P. L. Besting, the general manager of the White Sewing Machine Company, Mt. Sterling, Ky. White is undoubtedly the best in sewing machines, and Mr. Besting is just as surely king of all sewing machine agents. Write him for his list of agents, and you will never regret it, but first examine his mammoth advertisement in our paper, and a Wolfe's county before you send him a line.

Our readers will consult their own interest by reading the advertisements of John P. Rogers, Dr. C. C. Casky & Frazier, Swango Springs, Frank Tyler, Frazier House, J. T. Pieratt, J. M. Kash, A. P. Lacy, Dr. K. K. and Dr. Taulbee, also A. S. Nickell's card. Daysborough and the cards of Combs & Vaughn, and Quillin & Lyons of Campton. In fact, it will be money in your pocket to consult all the advertisements and deal accordingly.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of the Mt. Sterling Iron Foundry and Machine Company. Saw mill men, especially, should read it, and send their saws there to be repaired and ground. They will find it kinds of machinery in the best manner, and the factory advertised is very ornate and substantial. Write to R. T. Bean, supt., for catalogue.

Recently there were two boys committed to the county jail of Wolfe, charged with petty larceny to the amount of one pint of whisky, and a Wolfe's county man was employed to defend them for the following collateral fee: 3 pistols, 1 fiddle, 2 barlow knives, 1 set of marbles, 1 French harp and a sheepdog dog. Of course, he just sized their pile.

Lease Murphy, living on Grassy, near our town, cultivated three acres of tobacco of the White Dury variety on new ground, season of 1884, and has just disposed of his crop for the sum of $300.00, besides retaining 200 pounds for home use. He sold $350.00. This was a splendid crop.

Some of our enterprising citizens are having a nice sidewalk laid from the Christian church on High street to the crossing of Main street. This is a much needed improvement, and we hope the good work may be continued until every street shall have neat walks.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt will preach at the old Grassy church Saturday at 3 o'clock before the third of March in March, and on Sunday at 11 o'clock. Also, at Sol. Long's school house, on Saturday night.

Married—At the residence of George W. Phillips, on Lacy creek, Sunday, Feb. 22. James G. Lyons of Hazel Valley, Ark., to Mrs. Milly Hall, of this county. Judge G. B. Swango officiating.

Wm. Day, of Breathitt county, was in town last week, visiting the family of J. T. Day. He paid this office a visit at the residence of Mrs. Hays. Many thanks, Sir.

It looks now as though Mr. Godsey would be our next representative.

CORRESPONDENCE.

EASTERN KENTUCKY NEWS BY COUNTIES.

Reported by Special Correspondents from All Points in the Mountains.

Wolfe County.
CAMPTON.

Monday, the 2nd of March was court day, Judge G. B. Swango presiding. Levi K. Keefe, county attorney, present. T. C. Johnson, Z. R. Hurst, J. C. Lykins, J. M. Kash, Col. J. M. Quinn, and J. M. Quinn, all on hand looking after the interest of their clients, also was W. W. McGee, of West Liberty—but more especially preparing for quarterly court.

In the county court, Louisiana Linion was appointed administrator of the estate of James Linion, deceased.

Mr. Swango having received his commission and appointment, was sworn in as justice of the peace for district No. 6, made vacant by his resignation sometime ago. He says he cannot hold an office when elected, but when appointed never lets go.

John Allen and John Center appointed and sworn as deputy sheriffs.

H. K. Helton was appointed and sworn as deputy county clerk.

J. M. Terrell, justice of the peace, was licensed to perform the rites of matrimony.

The office of constable in district No. 2 was declared vacant.

G. T. Center, sheriff, was allowed fifty dollars for arresting Wm. Casky, charged with the murder of James Linion.

S. M. Tutt, made settlement with the court as constable for John Barker, lunatic.

Five dollars were appropriated for the care of Charles R. for one month.

S. M. Tutt, former sheriff, made final settlement with county court.

Fifty dollars were appropriated for work done on the court house.

Tuesday, March 2d, quarterly court opened, Judge G. B. Swango presiding; 34 cases docketed, 14 judgments, 12 cases continued, 3 dismissed agreed, 1 dismissed without prejudice, 1 dismissed by order of plaintiff. Court continued two days without adjournment. The first several cases were held on both sides, the judge did not in disposing of the docket so rapidly, trying all cases that were ready, and giving litigants and their attorneys all the business they could ask. Three appeals were taken in the circuit court.

W. M. Combs, of Jackson, was attending court on Monday.

Died (On the 4th inst., John Bailey, Jr., at or near his residence on Bear Pen branch. He had gone out on his farm to make rails, and having split open a log, dropped dead. He had been in poor health for some time.

Prosperity and success to THE HERALD. SPREADING.

Wheat, I am sorry to say, looks very bad, and I fear we will not make half a crop. Corn is short, and is held at 95c to $1.00 a bushel. Roundness and fodder are in good demand, but with little to be had.

Miss Sallie Skeen is suffering with a bad cold and cough.

Mr. Skeen has removed from the mill to Mr. Brown's farm.

Mr. H. D. Spradling has just received a lot of fruit and rose trees to arrange for here.

Mr. H. T. Horton, of Campton, will move into the house that Mr. Collingworth vacated next week.

J. W. Cox is working at H. L. Spradling's mill, putting in a new mill, which will be working order next week.

John Spradling has been attending court at Campton this week.

Messrs. M. Tutt, T. K. Tutt, and J. J. Tutt are attending school at Campton.

I am sorry to say that W. L. Pelfrey has had his horse burnt and lost most of his household goods.

THE HERALD is liked very much here, and it is the wish of your correspondent that it may find its way into every household in the mountains.

STILLWATER.
I hear that you started THE HERALD on the 4th inst., and as a well wisher of the cause, I feel like to say a few lines to you.

Stillwater, from where I write, and where I was born and reared, is a beautiful and fertile place to live. There is about 10 miles from its headwaters to the entrance into here.

Here we have fine timber, such as poplar, oak, beech, hickory, chestnut, and many others, and a large quantity of timber has been consumed to some extent.

night. It is useless to say anything of him as a public speaker, for he is too well known in Eastern Kentucky. Let those desiring a treat in the way of facts, irresistible logic and eloquence, make it a point to be present. The temperature people are pressing the battle to the extreme's edge.

SALLIES.
Corn and feed crops are doing well.

Amos Nickell, who has been quite sick, is slowly improving.

Mr. K. Nickell is operating his large coal bank.

J. B. Amys has his tobacco loaded off, and is at home in the country.

The farmers are plowing and putting their farms in shape.

Sam Long has about recovered from a severe case of fever.

GRASSY.
Hon. W. H. Taulbee called on us last Saturday, and we were glad to see the senator looking so well.

John Leach died suddenly at his residence on Grassy, last Friday, only suffering about two hours. He leaves a wife and eleven children, and a host of friends and relatives to mourn his loss.

J. M. Delavans and Ambrose Cole have gone to Magnolia on business.

Ely Fugate has just returned from Virginia, where he sold his farm for $1,000. Ely says it is done going to Va.

Ben Shoemaker of Scott county, Va., was on Grassy recently.

G. T. Devodon has re-created the property of S. W. Cecil for the present year.

Henry Roe has opened his blacksmith shop at Cecil's store.

Nickell, Oakes & Co. are rolling logs into Grassy, and preparing for the first time.

THE HERALD is a welcome visitor on Grassy. Every one should give it a try, and reading the news.
